Just a Few Items Boiled Down to a Paragraph for Quick and Easy Digestion

Henry M. Holbrook is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk and not a for the Legislature as The Eagle accidentally stated last week. We are glad to apologize for our mistake. Remember Mr. Holbrook is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk.

Miss Lucinda Williams, bright young daughter of Policeman Bill Williams of our town, and Huey Amburgey, an industrious young man of Millstone, were quietly married a few days ago. The Eagle extends to them the hope of a long and happy life.

LATE START—We clip the following from the Courier-Journal: "Hazard, June 4—A ten-pound boy has just been born to Mr. and Mrs. Elhanan Crawford, this city, the father having recently reached the age of 71 and the mother is 50. Although the couple have been married a long time this is their first born."

W. R. Boggs asks us to state that he is not a candidate for County Judge before the August primary.

W. R. Callahan will hold services at the Courthouse Saturday and Sunday, June 25-26, at 11 a. m. All are invited to attend.

Geo. W. Fleming and J. Martin Potter, live Sheriff candidates, were here Monday.

Reports of that slate and this slate are frequently heard. There is little to slate-making this soon. Besides, slates are so easily shattered.

We are authorized to say that J. Newton Clay of Campbranch, is a Republican candidate for Jailer of Letcher county. If nominated and elected he says he will serve faithfully all the people all the time.

It is a lamentable fact that practically all prospects for an Irish potato crop have been eliminated by the recent dry weather. Other crops, especially gardens, are writhing and twisting in agony.

This week the announcement of Manon Cornett from Perry county, new holding a position with the State Insurance Department at Frankfort, appears as a candidate for the Legislature from our district. Mr. Cornett stands well in the Republican party having formerly been secretary to Congressman John W. Langley, and of course is very familiar with the political game. Like the number of other candidates for this nomination Mr. Cornett is highly and well connected in both Perry and Letcher county. We commend him to the attention of all our Republican friends.

Misses Maggie and Pearl Holcomb returned from Cincinnati and are associated with their mother conducting the Day Hotel

Jason Cox of the Linefork section and known from head of Buck creek to Greasy and on to Marshals branch is announcing for Jailer. Jason will make the jungles ring from now on till the primary. After that—it will depend on how they vote.

We promised a few friends with the influence of other friends we would bring out a new candidate or two each week till the 14th at which time primary entries will be over and we have succeeded pretty well.

The good rains Wednesday brought new life to vegetation. It is hoped the potato crop is not entirely ruined.

Mrs. Hester Salyer returned from a proloeged stay in Arkansas. We welcome her back home.

A box supper is to be given Saturday night at the Courthouse. The ladies are invited to prepare boxes. The proceeds are to go to the Whitesburg ball team.

The health of the country and town seems good. We hear of a few cases of something like flux.

In a crowd of ten men seen on our streets eight of them were candidates.

Misses Georgia and Ruby Kilbourne, Burton Parsons and Roy Kilbourne, nice young folks of Appalachia, were visitors in town this week.

J. C. Day, of our town, who has been prospecting as a Republican candidate for Representative has fully decided to be a candidate and will so say in next issue.

The man who calls another a dirty cuss and in turn is put down as a blooming fool ought to confine themselves to questions that are disputed.

If it is true that the darkest hour is just before the dawn we could find a lot of persons who have been ready for the break of day a long long time.

One filing time for candidates is now on and another will come on August 6, 1921. There will be flubs galore on Aug. 7.

County Roads

J. S. Bentley, Field Engineer for the State Highway Commission, arrived at Jenkins May 27 and immediately began surveying for the State Highway from the B. & O. depot at Jenkins to upper end of Haymond. The survey of this section of the State Highway will be completed before July 1 and Mr. Bentley and his party will then begin survey of a section of road from Mayking down the river to the mouth of Colly Creek. This survey provides for a road 22 feet wide from ditch line to ditch line and right of way to be acquired is 40 feet wide. The companies through whose lands the road will pass have indicated their willingness to convey such right of way as is needed free of charge.

AN ODE TO THE PINE MOUNTAIN

I crawl, I climb to gain your crest,
And then pause, spellbound, wondering
Of the mysteries deep within your breast;
You know and tell not, so, pondering
I but must guess.

Monuments of stone and glory
That view the passing years,
Oh, what a wonderful story
Written in laughter and tears!
—That I must guess.

Clothed with the shrouds of time,
Buried with thoughts of the past,
Lie records of deeds sublime
And of valor that will last,
Until I guess.

NOTICE! Big Barbecue!

On July 4 it is proposed to have at Whitesburg a big barbecue in honor of that Glorious day. Candidates and everybody else who are willing to help out financially or by spreading the news of it are invited to do so.

Whitesburg Patriotic Club

New Clerk

To the Voters—I am a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk subject to the Republican party. I have ever heartily supported our party and this is my first time to ask for office. In 1906 I lost all I had by fire and four years ago my health failed me and I have a hard time keeping on my feet as I can hardly work. When you go to the polls place yourself in my condition and then vote like your duty demands—vote for me. I thank you and will put forth the greatest effort of my life to serve you well.

S. A. HILL

Notice, Candidates!

Any one candidate may have his or her picture and a few lines telling who you are what office you seek, printed on our front page one time for the sum of $5. Only one can be used each issue and will run in the order in which we get them. Should several orders be received about the same time they will be run alphabetically.

LISTEN

The Eagle is an unbiased non-partisan newspaper published alone for the benefit of the people—all the people—for their prosperity and the upbuilding of the county. One of the greatest elections, one that will spell much for the entire county, is coming in the near distance. Without fear and without favor we have done our best to get candidates before the people. We mean those who have paid us to do so and we are proud of the success we have had. More than 1,000 real live citizens take and read the Eagle each week and these with their friends look forward to learning what is going on thru its columns. Now, it is not necessary for a candidate for county or district office to announce in the Eagle but those who do show an interest in home enterprise that is a fair mark of the man that is in them. Come let us work together.

Announcement

To the Voters of Perry and Letcher—I am a candidate for Representative from our Legislative district, composed of the counties of Perry and Letcher to be voted for at the coming August primary.

Having been in Frankfort for the past 17 months knowing personally every State official and having attended practically every session of the 1920 Legislature I feel that I will be in position to do more for our district than any other man.

Altho Perry is my home county I shall if elected faithfully serve the entire district, Letcher as well as Perry. I am neither a coal operator or miner, but will support such legislation as will be fair to both. At present I am employed in the Insurance Department at Frankfort, the only Perry county man holding a position with the State, and my chief reason for seeking the place as Representative is to be in position to amend our insurance laws so as to give policy holders more protection against unauthorized companies, unauthorized agents and insurance sharks generally. Earnestly soliciting the support of every Republican voter in the district, I am, Resp.

Manon Cornett

New Judge

In this issue appears the announcement of N. T. Preston, of Jenkins, as a candidate for County Judge of our county. Mr. Preston became a citizen of our county about 12 years ago and has been identified with its interests ever since. He is an ardent apostle of good roads and has been engaged in this kind of construction work a great deal of his time. We hear he is well qualified for the position asked and that he will be a strong candidate for the nomination.

SOMETHING RARE

No doubt the most remarkable display of the engraver's art was to be seen on the streets of Whitesburg this week. On the head of an ordinary pin could be read the entire Lord's Prayer as given in the Testament. Ed Burk the man who has the wonder in charge has exhibited it in all the larger cities and towns of the United States. You view the prayer under a microscope which magnifies the letters of the words 398 times their normal size. There are 254 letters in the words of the prayer. Every letter is plainly read and the letters appear to be about 12 point to the reader.

Notice

Is hereby given to any officer of the law, State or National, that we have given notice to all persons not to trespass upon our lands owned by us in Virginia and Kentucky by operating moonshine stills or in any other way. Morgan C. Bolling and wife. By Morgan C. Bolling.

Having to install another engine in our office has knocked us considerable this week but we will try to straighten out soon on your work. Kindly be patient, your work.

Gets Good Position

Sam Collins, of Our City to be Honored.

It is highly probable that Judge Sam Collins of our town will be appointed as Chief Prohibition Agent for Kentucky. This is one of the choicest plums to be handed out by the new administration for this State. Mr. Collins is not an applicant for the appointment but in case the position is tendered him he may accept.

Our List Grows

Lately the following have had their names written on the Eagle's wings for a year:

W. A. Hull, Hazard.
D. A. Hull, Roanoke, Va.
Chas. Collins, Onalaska, Wash.
Dr. T. G. Wright, Lynch Mines.
Tony Raneiro, city.
H. R. Laughlin, Jenkins.
Arch Adams, Blackey.
A. J. Kirk, Jenkins.
Dr. Cook, Democrat.
Green Garrett, Winchester.
J. S. Adams, Millstone.
Mrs. J. H. Adington, Jenkins.
J. R. Maggard, Colson.
Henry Kimbey, Whiteo.
Joseph Bolling, Overfork.
A. W. Jenkins, Jenkins.

You ought to get on the list and see what is being done.

Announcement

To the People of Letcher Co.:

After due deliberation and much solicitation from the people of my neighborhood and a large number of people in various sections of the county I have decided to ask for the Republican nomination for County Judge at the primary Aug. 6. I have been a citizen of your county for a number of years and have all this time been identified with public industries, construction work and other public enterprises. I am a mountain man and know what mountain people need in the way of government, and should I be nominated and elected will do all in my power to serve them in an earnest and careful manner. I invite investigation as to my character and qualifications from those who have known me for years. Your support is earnestly solicited. N. T. Preston

Has Resigned

This week Chas. M. Cole, who has been serving as Jailer ever since Judge Whitaker qualified as County Judge, resigned the office. Mr. Cole being in the grocery business here desires to give closer attention to that business. We have heard no suggestions as to who will be appointed by the Court to take over the office.

REPUBLICAN LEADER DEAD

Judge A. T. Hert, Republican National Committeeman from Kentucky, died suddenly in Washington Tuesday morning according to dispatches received by friends here. Mr. Hert was 55 years of age a very wealthy man and one of the strongest leaders in the Republican party in our State. His home was in Louisville.

Millstone Wins

Whitesburg Meets Millstone on the Diamond and One of the Best Games of the Season Results

Sunday the baseball loving public of Whitesburg hied away to Millstone to try their strength on the diamond. They went coached to come away winners. They found Millstone in the same spirit. This resulted in the most interesting game of the season and which finally ended with the score of 6 to 5 in favor of Millstone. Each team did its level best. There was not a hitch and scarcely a dispute during the entire game, and the courtesies shown by the Millstone friends will be long remembered. Millstone certainly has a crack team. Whitesburg played well and certainly feels good at the showing made. About 300 persons witnessed the game.

For Justice

To the Voters—After due consideration I hereby announce myself as a Democratic candidate for Magistrate in Lower Rockhouse district. I promise faithful service and to look out for the people's interests and at all times maintain law and order. I appeal to all good men and women for support. J. J. Watts

Millstone

A revival meeting conducted by Rev. Forester is in progress. Rev. Roach of Hazard, is assisting.

An exciting baseball game was played here Sunday between Millstone and Whitesburg. The score stood 6 to 5 in favor of Millstone, and it didn't rain this time. Ah, boys!

Bessie and Lucy Bains went to Whitesburg Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. T. P. Craft unite in extending sympathy to Mrs. Craft on account of the serious illness of her husband.

Esq. Tilden Wright was down the river first of the week. We hear rumors that he might become a candidate. He certainly has made us a good officer.

The editor (with a clean shirt on) with a number of other Whitesburgers visited our little city Sunday. Little Bitt

Jailer D. J. Cox

Jason Cox of Letcher county is a Republican candidate for Jailer and says he is a sure winner and runs on the unanimous endorsement of his district. D. J. Cox is one of the best known men in the county, a laboring man all of his life and a faithful worker for the Republican party for years. Has served as deputy sheriff 14 years and satisfied the people and says he will do the same as their jailer. Jason is brave, qualified, and will do much to keep law and order in the county and promises to not let any of his prisoners escape. He says to the good men and women "If you want a real jailer, give me your vote."

U. S. TO SIT IN ALLIED COUNCILS

Cabinet Decides to Accept Invitation to Share in Council.

GUARD AMERICAN INTERESTS

President Harding's Representatives to Report on All Peace Decisions—Note Informing Powers of New Policy is Forwarded.

Washington, May 9.—The United States will accept the allied invitation to send representatives to the meetings of the supreme council, council of ambassadors and reparations commission. This announcement was made at the White House.

The entire cabinet meeting was given over to discussion of the allied invitation to participate in the deliberations of the bodies handling post-war matters.

The discussion resulted in an agreement that the administration cannot follow out the policy of asserting American rights, protecting this country's interests in question growing out of the war, without having representatives present when these matters are considered.

Note to Lloyd George.
The State department made public the following note addressed to Premier Lloyd George as president of the allied supreme council:

"The government of the United States has received through the British ambassador the courteous communication in which you state that with the unanimous concurrence of the powers represented at the allied conference in London you are to inquire whether this government is disposed to be represented in the future as it was in the past, at allied conferences, at the conference of ambassadors in Paris and on the reparations commission.

"The government of the United States, while maintaining the traditional policy of abstention from participation in matters of distinctly European concern, is deeply interested in the proposed economic adjustments and in the just settlement of the matters of world importance which are under discussion in these conferences and desires heartily to co-operate in the deliberations on these questions. Mr. George Hawley, appointed ambassador to Great Britain, will be instructed on his arrival in Great Britain to take part as the representative of the President of the United States in the deliberations of the supreme council.

"The American ambassador to France will be instructed to resume his place as unofficial observer in the conference of ambassadors and Roland W. Boyden will be instructed to sit again in an unofficial capacity on the reparations commission.

"The government of the United States notes with pleasure your expression of the belief of the representatives of the allied governments assembled in London that American co-operation in the settlement of the great international questions growing out of the World war will be of material assistance."

Invitation From Allies.
The text of the allied invitation sent by Lloyd George reads:

"As president of the allied conference, which is just completing its sittings in London, I am authorized with the unanimous concurrence of all the powers here represented to express to the United States government our feeling that the settlement of the international difficulties in which the world is still involved would be materially assisted by the co-operation of the United States, and I am therefore to inquire whether that government is disposed to be represented in the future, as it was at an earlier date, at allied conferences, whether they may meet at the ambassadors' conference, which sits at Paris, or on the reparations commission.

"We are united in feeling that American cognizance of our proceedings, and, where possible, American participation in them, will be best facilitated by this."

CAR MEN ACCEPT WAGE CUT

Employees of Detroit United Railway Agree to Take Reduction in Pay.

Detroit, May 9.—Approximately 80 per cent of the car men employed by the Detroit United railway in Detroit, Port Huron, Flint, Ann Arbor, Pontiac and Mount Clemens have voted to accept a wage reduction. The new scale will be 55, 58 and 60 cents an hour. The men have been receiving 70, 73 and 75 cents.

Mrs. Henry, Author, Drowns.
Yakima, Wash., May 9.—Mrs. Anna Henry of New York city, known as the author of "The House in the Woods" and other stories, was drowned in the Nachus river, near here. She is supposed to have fallen into the river through the caving in of an overhanging bank.

One Man's Experience

ONE DAY a man came to the bank and told us confidentially that he had a chance to buy some shares of stock in a manufacturing concern near Chicago and that it looked good to him. But he desired our advice. Of course we urged a careful investigation so we wrote a letter to the First National Bank in the town where the factory was located asking for the information needed. That bank wrote us to let the stock in this company alone because its affairs had been seriously mismanaged and that failure was almost certain before many weeks. A few weeks later they went broke. So our patron did not lose his money. We often help some patron with problems like this. Do you consult your banker in such cases?

SEA "FIGHT" JUNE 21

U. S. Navy Prepares for Mimic Warfare Off Virginia Capes.

Former German Cruiser Frankfurt and Battleship Ostfriesland and Other Craft to Be Destroyed.

New York, June 6.—Instructions to the fleet for the joint army and navy battle operations against surrendered German war craft and the obsolete battleship Iowa off the Virginia capes from June 21 to July 20 reveal an elaborate program of mimic warfare. The enemy vessels to be destroyed by aircraft and gunfire include the U-117, U-140, U-111, UB-48, the destroyers G-102, S-132, V-43, the cruiser Frankfurt and the battleship Ostfriesland.

The former German craft will be anchored in position about 50 miles east of Cape Charles light vessel in not less than 50 fathoms of water.

Opening operations against the U-117 will be launched by seven divisions of naval planes using 163-pound bombs. If this submarine has not been sunk by naval aircraft, army planes will attack with 250-pound bombs. Should the aircraft fail to sink the other submarines, a division of destroyers will attack by gunfire. At the conclusion of the gunfire any submarine afloat will be sunk by depth charges by a wrecking party from the North Dakota.

The search for the Iowa will bring into play all the ingenuity of aircraft and destroyers. It will move under radio control of the Ohio and at the zero hour will be at some point between the latitude of Cape Hatteras and Cape Henlopen.

Army and navy seaplanes and four army dirigibles will form a scouting line between Cape Hatteras and Cape Henlopen. Planes on the scouting line will assemble by divisions and proceed to the attack in order of light bombardment squadrons, then heavy bombardment squadrons and seaplanes.

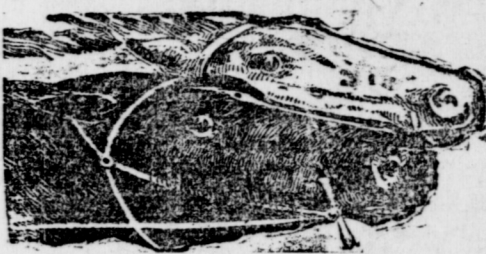

Should any of the former German destroyers remain afloat after the attack by aircraft and destroyers, a division of battleships will finish them at a range of 40,000 yards, using secondary batteries only.

The experiments with the battleship Ostfriesland on July 20 include a series of aerial attacks. If the bomb attack fails to sink the Ostfriesland, the dreadnaught Pennsylvania will open fire with its main battery at 18,000 yards.

HUNDREDS DIE IN COLORADO FLOOD

Heavy Rains Cause Millions of Dollars Worth of Property Loss.

THOUSANDS MADE HOMELESS

Pueblo Inundated and Loss Its Estimated at $4,000,000—Towns of Marshall Threatened—300 Autoists Marooned on Highway.

Denver, Colo., June 6.—A dispatch to the Denver Times from Pueblo contained a statement that "hundreds of lives have been lost."

It was the first direct dispatch from Pueblo since Friday night, and came over a Western Union wire. The dispatch added most of the lives were lost in the Grove district, southeast of town.

Denver, Colo., June 6.—Continued heavy rains extended little encouragement to eastern and central Colorado, which were swept by the worst floods in the state's history.

Meager reports indicated a loss running into the millions, with the heaviest damage at Pueblo, where a large part of the business section and several residential districts were inundated by waters from the Arkansas river.

The known loss of life still remains at four, with possibilities of an increase in the death toll when wire communication was restored.

$4,000,000 Loss in Pueblo.
The situation early in the day was: Pueblo inundated and cut off from wire communication for hours. Special news dispatches placed loss at about $4,000,000.

Marshall—Existence of the town of 200 inhabitants threatened by a break in the Marshall lake dam, a private irrigation project.

Louisville, inundated, several houses and other buildings washed away.

Loveland, dikes of lake broken and parts of town and farms inundated; floods put out of commission electric power plant from which Fort Collins, Greeley and other Weld county towns get their light and power.

Cloudburst Floods River.

A cloudburst at Swallows, 15 miles west of Pueblo, sent the Arkansas river on a rampage at dawn. By 8 a. m. it had overflowed into the town, inundated the business section and forced scores of families to flee from their homes in the lowlands. Eighteen families were rescued in boats, and boats also were used to rescue several persons from the federal building. Damage to the post office alone was officially estimated at $600,000.

Five feet of water was reported standing in the streets of Pueblo. No details of the relief measures for flood victims were available.

A Western Union operator remained at his key in Pueblo sending a news dispatch concerning the flood until the flood waters had crept around his ankles.

Bombing Warm of Break.

At Marshall the entire town of 200 people fled to the hills. The town, built on a high bluff, was a target of a signal of high explosives gave warning that the dam had broken, releasing 880 acres of water 63 feet deep. The dam began to weaken in the afternoon and efforts to lessen the strain on the structure by releasing some of the impounded water were rendered futile by the continued heavy flow from other streams and continued rain.

The spillway dam of the North Sterling reservoir broke, emptying into Pawnee creek, and causing the death of Mrs. Carl Davis and baby child. Two other children are missing. Davis was rescued from the flood, but not until after he was perhaps fatally injured.

Many Cattle Drowned.
At Lafayette Coal creek swept over its banks and inundated part of the town, swept over acres of farm land and drowned several hundred cattle, according to reports.

Sand creek, ordinarily a dry ravine near Colorado Springs, became a roaring torrent 15 feet deep and a third of a mile wide. The flood covered the Colorado Springs aviation field, trapping three airplanes and marooning their pilots.

All automobile highway bridges between Colorado Springs and Pueblo were reported by county commissioners as having been washed away. On the Boulder highway nearly 300 automobiles between Boulder and Denver were caught by the rain and forced to pass the night in their cars or abandon them and wade to farmhouses.

Work All Night on Dike.
At Loveland, northwest of Denver, virtually every able-bodied man worked all night to stop the break in the south dike of Lake Loveland.

Water was pouring through a break four feet square according to latest reports, and from two to eighteen inches of water filled the streets.

Kills Deaf Mute; Gets 10 Years.
Columbia, Mo., June 6.—Frank Statts, 22 years old, was found guilty of murder in the second degree in connection with the death of his step-grandfather, Samuel Halstead, 72, a deaf mute, by a jury in circuit court here. His punishment was fixed at ten years in the state penitentiary.

Why Suffer?

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back — especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset."

EXECUTE POLE ACE AS TRAITOR

Lieut. Henry Iwaniski Shot on Conviction of Giving Information to British.

BATTLE IN SILESIA STILL ON

Germans and Poles Fighting in Vicinity of Schimischow—Castle Owned by Count Stahwitz Burned—English Re-enforcing Army.

Warsaw, June 6.—Lieut. Henry Iwaniski of the Polish flying corps, convicted by court-martial of high treason in disposing of military secrets to British agents, was executed by a firing squad at the famous Warsaw citadel.

Poles and Germans Fight.
Oppeln, Silesia, June 6.—Fighting between Germans and Poles continues in the vicinity of Schimischow, about five miles northwest of Gross-Strehlitz. The castle owned by Count Stahwitz has been burned.

The British are gradually reinforcing their troops in the plebiscite, bringing in fresh soldiers and many tanks. The interallied commission for Silesia is reported to be considering the disposition of allied troops here so that clashes between the Poles and British may, if possible, be avoided.

Poles Execute Looters.
Kattowitz, Silesia, June 6.—Drastic steps have been taken by leaders of Polish insurgents to prevent plundering. Firing squads are busy every morning and several times recently six men have been executed at one time for various reasons.

In spite of the severe discipline, the Poles continue rioting and are reported to have robbed food convoys. A young German was captured near this city and was beaten to death by the Poles.

KILLS GIRL WIFE AND SELF

Albert Beardsley of Melrose Park, Ill., Shoots Spouse as She Begs for Life—Couple Estranged.

Melrose Park, Ill., June 6.—Mrs. Alice Beardsley, nineteen years old, was shot and killed by her husband, Albert Beardsley, at Ninth avenue and Lake street, Melrose Park. After killing her Beardsley pointed the gun at himself and died almost instantly as a bullet pierced his heart. The couple had been separated for two months. During which Mrs. Beardsley had returned to her parents on Twelfth avenue, Melrose Park.

Beardsley evidently had been following her, for he appeared suddenly at Lake street and Eighth avenue. Seeking protection, she entered the rear room of William Smith's saloon. Her husband followed and she fell on her knees. "Don't shoot," she cried. "Oh, I won't die," Beardsley took a few steps closer to his wife and then fired a bullet into her head. A moment later his dead body lay beside her.

13 KILLED IN IRISH FIGHTS

Woman Shot to Death While Watching Cricket Match at Dublin—Attempt to Free Sinn Feiners.

Dublin, June 6.—Thirteen persons have been killed in Irish disorders in the past 24 hours. One victim was a young woman who was shot to death while watching a cricket match on the grounds of Trinity College, Dublin. Her assailant is unknown. She was a student at the college. A sensational attempt was made to liberate the Sinn Fein prisoners in the Belfast jail. Three republicans disguised as British officers demanded the keys. The warden's suspicions were aroused and the alarm was given just in time. In the meantime the prisoners inside had overpowered their guards and were waiting for the doors to be unlocked. Fighting broke out in the prison, but soldiers quelled it.

FIXES GERMAN CASUALTIES

Commander Bainbridge Says Teuton Losses in World War Were 6,888,982.

Boston, June 6.—Germany's casualties in the World War were placed at 6,888,982 by Commander William S. Bainbridge of the naval medical corps, in an address here before the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States. The figure was determined, he said, through two years' service in Germany. The losses were divided as follows: Killed in battle, 1,531,148; missing, 991,240; wounded, 4,211,481; died of disease, 155,013.

SAYS PAIR ADMIT MURDER

John Mize of Platte, S. D., Thrown Into River by Couple Who Wanted His Team.

Omaha, June 6.—Deputy Sheriff O. D. Hedge, in a telegram to State Sheriff Myers, said he had obtained a confession from Rolla and Della Dehart that they murdered John Mize of Platte, S. D., to obtain his team and wagon and money, and after wrapping his coat over his head threw the body in the Niobrara river.

Rail Chief Declares Freight Charges Not the Cause of Stagnation.

FARM PRODUCTS ARE CITED

Business Depression and Lack of Demand the Real Trouble.

Washington, D. C.—In testifying before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which is conducting an inquiry into the railroad situation, Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of the Southern Pacific company, went into great detail as to the effect of freight rates on produce shipments, foreign and domestic. The main points he made in this part of his testimony were:

First—That business depression is not the result of high freight rates. Second—That the real cause of stagnation in produce shipments is lack of market or proffering.

He said in part: A widespread propaganda is being carried on to arouse public sentiment against existing freight rates, whereas the fact is that even since the rates have been advanced the cost of transporting commodities is far less than the toll taken by the commission merchant and the retailer for buying and selling them.

Public Misled as to Situation
People are misled and conclude that high rates have stopped the movement of a large amount of freight and that the railways would make more money if they would reduce the rates and thereby revive the traffic.

There is the strongest reason to believe that the very great reduction in traffic has been due almost entirely to general business conditions that are world-wide in their effect, and that would have come if there had been no advance in freight rates.

Prices of commodities reached their maximum in the first half of the year 1920 and thereafter fell with great rapidity in France, the United States and the United Kingdom. The fall in the United States began in May, and was rapidly on its way down grade in September, when the advanced rates took effect. Nevertheless traffic did not drop for at least four months. Slump Not Caused by Higher Rates

It was a general deflation and fall in prices from the heights to which they had been driven by war conditions that has caused a stagnation of business throughout the world.

That it is not caused by the cost of transportation is convincingly shown by the fact that stoppage of buying has caused an oversupply of ships, hence ocean tonnage rates have been recently at the lowest points in their history.

Notwithstanding these low rates, ocean traffic shows as great stagnation as rail traffic, and millions of tons of shipping here and abroad are rusting away in idleness. Many commodities would not move even if the freight charges on them were abolished entirely, because producers can find no market.

That the decline in business is not due to prohibitive freight rates is shown by the following examples:

In January of this year the total tonnage of lines west of El Paso and Omaha operated by the Southern Pacific Company fell off 41 per cent. The combined intrastate freight tonnage in Arizona and Nevada declined 50 per cent although no increase in the intrastate freight rates in those States has been as yet authorized or made effective. This decrease embraced grain, hay and livestock, as well as ores and other commodities. COTTON UNSHIPPED FOR LACK OF FREIGHT

Of a Texas cotton crop of over four million bales, 40 per cent remains unshipped. The average cost of rail and water shipment from producing point to Liverpool has been reduced about $1.25 per 100 pounds in the face of which about one-half million bales of cotton less than normal have been exported to Liverpool. Obviously the freight rate is not responsible for the restricted movement.

During September, October, and November, 1920, 45 per cent less rice, 50 per cent less salmon and 77 per cent less dried fruit were exported than during the same months of the previous year, although the reduction in ocean rates was substantially more than the increase in inland rail rates, so that the material decline in the exports of these commodities was in the face of a less aggregate cost of transportation.

The Case of the Fruit Growers
The troubles of the California lemon grower have attracted much attention. He claims he is unable to ship his product because of the increased freight rates. A removal of all the taxes on lemons would not help him. He has a lemon sea through the Panama Canal of less than half—48 per cent—of the rail rate, yet his lemons are not marketed.

The average price of a cantaloupe laid down in New York in the season of 1920 was not quite 11 cents. As they were retailed at about 25 cents, there is a further profit to somebody of 14 cents per cantaloupe.

The managers of the propaganda for a general reduction of freight rates have lost sight of the fact that in October, 1920, 1,195,321 carloads of coal were moved, being the maximum moved in any month in the preceding two years, although it was handled at the advanced freight rates, and we have heard nothing as to coal being reduced at a loss or of the coal mine owners going out of business because of existing freight rates.

The percentage of freight charges to value in the early part of 1921 is almost exactly the same as it was in 1914.

JAPAN OUT OF RUSS POLITICS

Statement Made That Evacuation of Siberia Will Be Postponed.

BOLSHEVIK FORCE AT IMAN

Members of the Former Vladivostok Government Have Left for Harbin With Japanese Bodyguard, It Is Reported.

Tokyo, June 6.—The naval ministry, it is announced, has ordered the withdrawal of the garrisons in the islands of the South Pacific, including the island of Yap, leaving the protection of the islands, including the wireless installation in Yap, to the police force attached to the civil administration. Several destroyers, it is added, will remain in the waters as guardships.

Tokyo, June 6.—A communication issued by the Japanese war department, after pointing out that the leaders of the former government at Vladivostok have been conducted in the direction of China, asserts that it is the intention of Japan to adhere to her policy of noninterference in Russian internal politics.

The Yoroza says Japan will indefinitely postpone her evacuation of Siberia.

Opinion in the Russian colony here regards the recent political overturn at Vladivostok as a significant anti-Bolshevik movement. Fear is expressed among the Russians, however, that the arrival of General Semenov, the Cossack anti-Bolshevik leader, who has announced his intention of proceeding to Vladivostok, will create dissensions among the anti-soviet elements. M. Markuloff, it is learned, has telegraphed General Semenov asking him to keep away.

Markuloff was prominent in Petrograd journalism during the days of the empire. He wrote on subjects connected with the Far East, where he had business interests.

The members of the former Vladivostok government, it is reported, have left for Harbin, with a Japanese bodyguard.

A Bolshevik force is said to be concentrating at Iman, in the coast province. Fifty vessels to the south of the Bolsheviks is a detachment of the Kappell forces under the command of General Smolin. The Bolsheviks are also reported as having suffered "utter defeat."

The Bolshevik foreign minister's document abandons all hope of bringing about a class revolution in the west by active propaganda, but he sees in present chaotic conditions abroad a golden opportunity to realize this ambition by minimizing the real strength of the soviet government until the psychological moment arrives.

Thinks Diplomats Will Blunder.

"We are approaching a moment," his instructions read, "when by the force of his own logic the capitalist diplomats will find themselves compelled to commit a folly, and it is our task not to interfere with the commission of that folly. Germany is in need of moral support. We shall furnish that. Germany needs security for her eastern border. That shall be promised her. France wants to see us helpless. Let us show her our helplessness. England wants to exploit us. We shall grant her every opportunity to do so."

"We must see to it that the center of gravity is transferred from us to the west. Let European diplomats break their heads over the solution of problems that cannot be solved. We shall always manage to remain the decisive factor."

OBJECT TO BOOTH MONUMENT

Alabama G. O. P. Women Would Remove the Lincoln Slayer Memorial.

Birmingham, Ala., June 6.—A movement looking to the removal of a statue erected at Troy, Ala., just after the Civil war to John Wilkes Booth, slayer of Abraham Lincoln, has been launched by Mrs. C. D. Brooks, president of the Woman's League of Republican Voters of Alabama. Mrs. Brooks declared that protests against the statue have come to the league from many sections of the country and she believes the time has come when such acts as placing the shaft "will be frowned upon by all good citizens of the South, regardless of party affiliations."

MASKED BAND BEATS CREW

Eight Badly Hurt by Mysterious Gang on Board Steamer Mitchell.

Old Point Comfort, Va., June 6.—A party of masked men invaded the shipboard's steamer Mitchell in Hampton Roads, seriously injured eight of the crew and inflicted slighter injuries on several others. A naval detachment answered the Mitchell's call for help, but before its arrival the masked assailants escaped.

General Semenov at Vladivostok. Vladivostok, June 6.—General Semenov, Cossack anti-Bolshevik leader, arrived here on the steamer Shodo Maru.

Judge H. T. Day Says

To the People and to the Public Generally of Letcher County, and Especially All Voters and All Candidates:

I desire to say that I announced myself as a candidate for County Judge of Letcher county sometime ago. At that time I intended to run and up to this time I intend to run, but during that time I have been disabled and could not go out from home very much. Now I am able to stir around and desire to say if I keep well I will see most all the voters in Letcher county before the primary, but if I should not get to see some of you I want you to know from this that I am a candidate and will run the race through, regardless of what anyone else may say or do.

I desire to say further that I am running on my record and from what the people know of me in a general way, and am not running in any other man's interest, nor am I led by any other man or set of men.

It has been rumored that I might keep certain other persons from announcing for office, or keep them from running; but, dear voters, ladies and men, I am running my own race, let others do likewise or otherwise, so far as I am concerned. I have no desire to put any man on or take any man off, and if any man desires to run or to not run it is without my suggestion or solicitation.

I am running my own race and all others can do the same.

Hoping to see each and all of you before the primary and asking you now and at the primary to support me, I am,

Your former servant and ever your friend,

H. T. DAY.

Felt Like an Iron Band Around Head

Mrs. Osborn Says She Shudders When She Thinks How She Suffered.

"For years," said Mrs. V. B. Osborn of 778 Lancaster Ave. Lexington, Ky. "I have been in a run down condition, nervous, weak and dizzy; I was actually so nervous that any sudden noise or excitement would produce a palpitation of my heart that frightened me. I absolutely could not climb stairs for to attempt such would thoroughly exhaust me."

"I had nervous headaches and when they came on it seemed that an iron band was drawn tight around my head. I now shudder when I think of those headaches. My stomach was weak and I could not digest the lightest liquid food. Any food of a solid nature caused nausea and the sickening sensation remained for hours.

"My misery was almost unbearable. My sleep was never sound and I was worn out all the time. My condition was indeed a deplorable one, I finally sought treatment in Cincinnati but nothing helped me one particle. I was on the verge of giving up in despair when a neighbor pleaded with me to try Tanlac. I obtained a bottle of the medicine and began its use.

I began improving at once and soon felt my nervousness and dizziness disappearing. Then my headaches left me and I realized my strength had returned. My appetite and digestion improved and I am now so much better in every way. This Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and the only one that ever really helped me. I hope every poor woman who is suffering as I did will try it."

ANNOUNCEMENT

Henry M. Holbrook Enters the Field for Circuit Court Clerk.

TO THE VOTERS OF LETCHER COUNTY:

I am a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk and desire to ask you, both ladies and gentlemen, for support. I am a young man and from my youth have struggled my way through to the present time. I have spent all my earnings since reaching manhood trying to educate myself that I might be of use to my county and my State. I desire to continue to climb upward and in order to do so have decided to kindly ask you to nominate me for this office. I feel certain that I am qualified for the duties of the office. Have been a teacher for eight years and glad of the work accomplished. Aside from the two years I spent in the army in the world war, a great deal of that time on the hot battlefields of France, I have been engaged in school work. I now feel like the people of my county should show a willing hand in my behalf. If chosen your clerk I assure you I will make you a good, sober and and painstaking official. Again asking your support and assuring you I will appreciate it, I am,

Very truly,

HENRY M. HOLBROOK
